

2N® Helios IP Vario: IP relay

Did you know that 2N® Helios IP Vario features a simple function offering a wide range of uses – an IP relay? The door intercom sends an http command via the LAN, and the IP relay responds by switching on. Given that the function uses the existing network infrastructure, it ensures a higher level of security and furthermore, you can control the device remotely anywhere in the network.

Did you know this information? To learn more about the IP intercom 2N® Helios IP Vario please click here.

2N® NetStar – A New Version 3.1.3!

The new version of 2N® NetStar has arrived! And with it a number of improvements: a new Switch Card containing 4 additional PRI ports and a new VoIP card that supports 64 VoIP call channels (G.711). The popular SIP provisioning service will save your time when installing SIP terminals. And users will be able to configure buttons on VoIP telephones with this version.

Do you like these innovations? You can download the version of 2N® NetStar here.

Wishing you Happy Holidays and Best Wishes for the New and Successful Year.